Library

February is “Library Lovers’ Month” and Monterey County Free Libraries has launched its Book Club to Go program to celebrate the occasion. The program is the first of its kind among all the libraries in Monterey County and offers library users everything they need for a successful book club meeting: a convenient tote bag filled with ten books, discussion questions, and discussion leader tips. Book Club To Go reading selections feature fiction and non-fiction titles chosen to stimulate lively group discussions.

This program is also one of the first in the entire country to offer a choice of English, bilingual English-Spanish, and Spanish selections for adults as well as teens.

Opening ceremony festivities were held at the Seaside Branch Library at 550 Harcourt Avenue at 11:00 am on Saturday, February 23rd where attendees were offered Book Club to Go bags to begin the program. For information about titles, book club resources, or to reserve a bag, please visit: www.montereycountyfreelibraries.org/bookclubtogo or call (831) 899-2055.

This concludes the CAO report.
