MCFL Librarian Carol Shields to win Champion of the Arts Award. Monterey County Free Libraries is proud to announce that Librarian Carol Diggory Shields will be recognized by the Arts Council for Monterey County, as a Champion of the Arts. Past recipients of this award include such famous authors as Beverly Cleary and Paul Fleischman. Carol is the author of 21 children's books, the most recent being “Food Fight”. Such memorable titles as “Saturday Night at the Dinosaur Stomp”, “Lunch Money and Other Poems about School” and “I Wish my Brother was a Dog” have made her a perennial favorite with children and parents alike. Carol’s books are entertaining and fun, as are the children’s programs she presents weekly at the Seaside Branch library. Congratulations Carol!

This concludes the CAO Weekly Report.
